

CHAIRMAN'S NOTE REGARDING 2 HOUR CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSE ON LAW & RULES MANDATORY FOR 2018/2019

Dear Licensed North Carolina Auctioneers,

A previous newsletter alerted licensees to the Board's decision to require 4 hours of Continuing Education again for the 2018/2019 licensing year, with 2 of those hours being a specific NCALB developed course for 2018 on Auctioneering Law and Rules with an emphasis on Ethics and Custodial Account Management. Completion of this mandatory 2-hour NCALB Continuing Education course (along with any other 2 CE hours) will be required in order to renew and be licensed for the year beginning on July 1, 2018.

This 2-hour course will be presented by NCALB staff in-person as part of each of the live Board-funded Continuing Education events throughout the state, which are free to attend. Live presentations will also be made at association meetings. Additionally, licensees will be able to view and obtain credit for this 2-hour Law & Rules course online at no charge through the Board's website at www.NCALB.org, beginning in February. A recorded version of the course will also be available to approved Continuing Education Sponsors.

As referenced, the Board is pleased to be in a position again this year to fund a series of nine free 4-hour Continuing Education programs (including the 2-hour mandated course) throughout North Carolina in nine locations. Please see the item below regarding these programs.

All NCALB approved CE courses whose scheduling NCALB has been advised of are listed on the NCALB website at www.ncalb.org/contEd.cfm. This list includes live CE programs as well as on-going online CE programs. Licensees are aware of the rules regarding CE course attendance and participation standards. As a friendly reminder, though, please see those rules again in this newsletter.

Updated information on Continuing Education/License Renewals will be shared with licensees through upcoming email communications, social media, and on the Board's website.

On behalf of the Board and staff, have a wonderful 2018!

Sincerely,

Gary Boyd
NCALB Chairman
